Conclusion

 My hypothesis was

Hypothesis: Predict if you think object 1 or object 2 will "win"

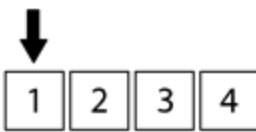

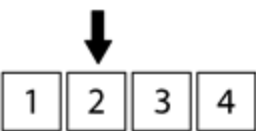

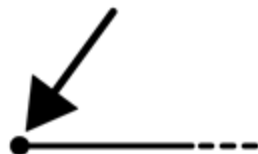

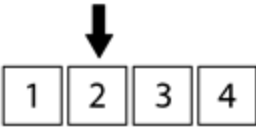

Materials: two objects (can be written in spaces provided) and a hair dryer or fan.

Procedure: Line up objects. Blow one, Blow the next

Observations: Which one went the furthest and "won"?

Conclusion: Did your observation match your hypothesis? If yes, you were right! If no, you were wrong.

Remember, it's okay to be sad if you are wrong but take deep breaths and stay calm. Maybe you will be right next time!
